

SR. KATHLEEN ROONEY

Kathleen Rooney, SSJ is a Sister of St. Joseph from Philadelphia. She was born in Bayonne, New Jersey and has four siblings – one of which is her identical twin!

Sr. Kathleen has taught religion in various high schools in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, was a parish pastoral associate for 10 years, and is currently a Chaplain in the only women's prison in New Jersey. She holds a B.A. in Psychology from Rutgers University in New Jersey and an M.A. in Theology from St. Michael's College in Vermont, and a certificate of Healing Outreach and Evangelization from the Encounter School of Ministry in Brighton, Michigan.

She is the author of the book, "Sisters: An Inside Look" published by Saint Mary's Press. She also wrote a "JOSARY", like a Rosary, reflecting on the Mysteries of St. Joseph's life.

She happily says her vocational call to the Sisters of St. Joseph was the best "yes" she ever made!
