

JUSTIN MATUSZEWSKI

Justin is a student at DePaul University pursuing a degree in accounting and finance. Following graduation, he plans to obtain his CPA and work in public accounting.

At DePaul, Justin had the opportunity to lead retreats and help plan student Mass on campus. He found both of those opportunities extremely rewarding as they helped him share the gift that Jesus offers to each of us – a personal relationship with Him.

In his free time, he enjoys running marathons, playing tennis, reading, and listening to podcasts.
