

Javier Orozco

Javier is a theologian and executive director with over twenty years of professional experience in religious, educational and community affairs. Skilled in Catholic theology and ministry, ecumenical and Interreligious leadership, intercultural competence, public speaking, teaching, writing and research. He lives with his wife, Theresa, in the Tower Grove East neighborhood of St. Louis.

javierorozco@archstl.org