

MARY ELLYN SCHNEIDER

Mary Ellyn has many professional and personal experiences that have shaped her religious devotions. As a parishioner of the Archdiocese of Chicago, she attends mass daily. She has served as a lay minister of communion for 30 years, taught religious education to children, and led vacation bible school and various bible camps. Additionally, she directed the RCIA program for her home parish for 10 years.

Mary Ellyn has done many years of Bible study and received a degree from the Archdiocese of Chicago for a Four-year course in Advanced Biblical Studies in the Chicago Catholic Scripture School.

Professionally, Mary Ellyn has been a hair stylist for over 45 years. Additionally, she is the owner and proprietor of Hair Trends for Kids, a business dedicated to making everyone feel special not only for the day, but for always.

Mary Ellyn sees her goal as bringing people closer to God by helping them understand his mercy and love for everyone.

hair4kids@comcast.net