Father Michael Pavlovich is a native of Denver, Colorado. He is the fourth of five siblings. Father Michael has been involved in the work of the Church since he was old enough to hold a dust rag. His family lived directly across the street from the parish for which his grandfather tirelessly raised money in order to build the church back in the early 1900's. His family continued to be involved in every aspect of this neighborhood parish.

Fr. Michael graduated from Regis Jesuit high school in June of 1978. He then entered Saint Thomas seminary in Denver for two years of his college seminary formation. In 1980 he was sent to Mountain View California to Saint Patrick's college seminary to complete his degree in 1982. In the fall of 1982 he was accepted into Saint Thomas theological seminary in Denver where he completed his formation and was ordained in 1987 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Denver.

Fr. Michael has served in several parishes in the archdiocese of Denver. He has given numerous parish missions and liturgical workshops. Currently he serves as the Catholic priest hospital chaplain at University of Colorado Health and Children's Hospital of Colorado. In addition, Fr. Michael is a Spiritual Director, composer, liturgist, and enjoys music, movies and architectural design.
